

From: Paul Hayes
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 2:43pm
Subject: Microsoft

I am appalled that so little has been done to deter Microsoft from continuing their business practices. They have clearly and repeatedly operated in a way counter to fairness, they are unquestionably a monopoly, and they constantly squelch competition. These certainly seem to me to fall within the purview of the US Justice department, and yet you do nothing. It removes my faith in our system of jurisprudence to see these maladies go without remedy.

Thank you for your time.

Paul Hayes

--

Why waste time learning when ignorance is instantaneous? - Hobbes